

WHO WAS THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD?

(PEACE BE UPON HIM)

He was the final prophet of Allah who lived over 1400 years ago. He was sent with a universal message to the whole of mankind through the Quran.

He was born in the Arabian peninsula. He was an orphan at birth and was known for his excellent character and honesty.

He received the first revelation at the age of 40 years and then revelations continued for around 23 years. The revelations are the words of Allah received through the angel Jibrail (AS).

WHAT DID THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD (SAW) SAY:

"Be good to your neighbours"

"Show the best treatment and behaviour towards your mother and be good to your parents"

"Be good to animals and look after them"

"Be good to your relatives and maintain ties of kinship"

"Visit the sick and feed the hungry"

"The best of you are the ones that are best in character and behaviour and manners"
